A monument to reach the say!
But vain your efforts, all, to cope
With Pile's transcandent of K. Soap!
I do avow, if used aright,
"Twill even wash a black man white!
When toil and seil has grimm'd his figure
Till he's as black as any "nigger."
One rub of "O. K." sets him right,
And brings him out like "lily-white."
O! you who toil in dust and ashes,
Just go to Print this very night.
And 'I'll be bound he'll set you right.
Fut one great effort of our trade is
That pleasing task, to please the Ladies.
And here—we've se much honor done us—
They always seem to smile upon us!
There's Mrs. A. is wild about it,
And Mrs. B. can't do without it—
And all the others, down to Z,
Erclaim "That's just the thing for me!"
Then hundreds more that we could tell on—
There's Lincoln, Scott, and brave McGleila
Have made their minds up now, and say
They'll nothing bave but Priz's "O. K."
